A Happy Child

My house is red - a little house,
A happy child am I,
I laugh and play the livelong day,
I hardly ever cry.

I have a tree, a green, green tree,
To shade me from the sun;
And under it I often sit,
When all my work is done.

My little basket I will take,
And trip into the town;
When next I'm there I'll buy some cake,
And spend my bright half - crown

Yohan wanted a bicycle very much. He asked his parents to buy one for him, but they didn't. Last week on his thirteenth birthday, his uncle Suresh gave him a beautiful bicycle as the birthday present. He bought it from his best friend Milan's shop in Colombo.

Having a new bicycle as a birthday present, Yohan was very happy. He had no words to thank his uncle as he was overjoyed. He got on to the bicycle and had a ride around his house. "You must be careful when you're cycling". Make sure you hold the handle bars tightly and ride slowly," mother warned him.

"Dont worry mother. I can ride very well," Yohan said. He started slowly riding down the street, but he soon began riding fast. As he came very quickly down a slope, he thought to take his feet up in the air. He was thrilled and said to himself, "I needn't hold the handlebars either" He felt that he was like an aeroplane flying in the air.

Suddenly the bicycle hit a large stone which was on the road and the front spoke of the bicycle broke. Yohan fell off the bicycle. The bicycle went on down the hill and crashed into a tree. Yohan hurt his left arm. He cried aloud looking at his badly damaged birthday present.

- (1) How old was Yohan?
- (2) Who presented the bicycle?
- (3) Where did Yohan ride his bicycle first?
